The class trip was an amazing experience that will hold many of my high school memories. It gave our class a chance to really connect away from school in a fun way. We saw some really amazing things that shaped our country during its formation. Together we managed to stay out of trouble and experience a world outside of Almond-Bancroft. I'd like to thank all the chaperones, administration, and our tour guide Bill Torado, who was very knowledgeable on all the sites.

~Brant Bickford, Senior Class President

Senior Tea "Spa Night" Hosted by P. I. E.

The Senior Tea "Spa Night" was held on May 19th at 7:00 pm. The library, FACE room and hallway were transformed into a "Spa" like atmosphere. Senior girls, along with a female guest, enjoyed stations that included; "Hot Wax" by Dana Christianson of Heavenly Hair, who provided lip or eyebrow waxing, "You Yoga" by Erin Andrews, who taught relaxing yoga positions, "Mighty Massage" by three massage artists, who gave the ladies an eight minute chair massage, "Pampered Hands & Feet" by P .I.E. members; Trina Warzynski, Leslie Burns, Betony Trzebiatowski, Kathy Miner, and volunteers, Marguerite Baumgartner, Val Gendusa, Michelle Warzynski & Pat Voss; who applied Satin hands, paraffin wax dips on hands, ring cleaning, foot baths, foot massages, and finger nail painting. Sandy Cuila helped with set up and take down and Michelle Lansing put together gift bags for the senior girls. A relaxing and indulging time was had by all.

Alborada A Latin-American Show

On May 18th P.I.E. brought to the Almond-Bancroft elementary students a program full of music, dancing and student participation including instruments created of wood, clay and armadillo. Songs were performed in English, Spanish and Quecha (a native language of the Inca Indians). All students moved, danced and laughed to the great music and antics by Alborada.

Help Make One of Wisconsin's Best Ideas...Even Better!

The Almond-Bancroft A.C.E.S. members, along with the Waushara County Chapter of the Ice Age Trail, would like to take this opportunity to invite you to join in an Ice Age Trail Building Event from August 12th thru August 15th. Volunteers of all ages and talents are welcomed, as a new section of the Ice Age National Scenic Trail, just a few miles northeast of Coloma, is hand crafted.

Volunteers are needed to help build the trail, no experience or equipment needed. Certified crew leaders will train volunteers in trail building techniques. They also need volunteers to help prepare and serve meals to all of the hungry volunteers. There is also a need for friendly and organized volunteers to help keep the project running smoothly.

Work will begin at 8:00 am each day and conclude by 5:00 pm, except Sunday when it will conclude at noon. Any amount of time you can contribute to this project, from an hour to the full four days, will be greatly appreciated. Meals will be provided, as well as a place to camp nearby if interested. Bring sturdy boots, leather gloves, water bottles and insect repellent.

For more details and to preregister for this event, you can visit www.iceagetrail.org or call the IATA at (800) 227-0046. If you are interested in activities sponsored year-round by the Ice Age Trail Alliance's Waushara County Chapter, contact coordinator Randy Lennartz (lennartz@centurytel.net, or 920-787-2333) or visit www.iceagetrail.org/Waushara/index.htm.

Adventure Club with Environmental Services (A.C.E.S) Update

On Friday, April 30th the A.C.E.S members had the chance to try the sport lacrosse. The UWSP Women's Lacrosse Team came by to introduce the basic rules and skills. Members learned how to throw, catch, and cradle, along with a few strategies. After practicing the techniques, they got the chance to play a game! Members enjoyed the opportunity to try a different sport.

Things to look for:

- * Ski trip opportunities for all ages.
- * JOIN OUR CLUB!!! (A.C.E.S. is open to students grades 9-12)

If you are interested in helping with donations or providing future activities for the club, please contact advisors Mrs. Brenda Ramczyk or Mrs. Amanda

Supporting The Troops

As the school year ends, we will not end our support of the Troops. Through the summer months Danielle Manock and Esther Whitman will meet at Danielle's home to fill boxes and do mailings.

The Almond Legion Auxillary is paying the postage to send the boxes.

Funds are needed to help buy supplies to fill the boxes. You can get donations to Danielle or Esther.

Boxes are sent to Troops that are stationed in the Middle East. Please call Esther (366-2174) with names and/or news of any other military personnel serving our country as they leave for duty or return home.

These are the soldiers who are currently receiving boxes as they serve in the Middle East:

Larry Sanchez (A-B graduate)

Daniel Abundiz (A-B graduate)

Steven Van Ert (A-B graduate)

Brittney (Davenport) Amador (A-B graduate)

Brenden Henske (son of A-B teacher Missy Henske)

In addition to the American Legion Auxiliary, we would like to thank Paradise Farms for donating "Pickles In A Pouch" and Girl Scout Troop 6046 for their delicious cookies.

Friends Of Music News By: Renie Milanowski, Co-Chair, Friends of Music

Giving thanks...

In this final Friends of Music newsletter article for the 2009-2010 school year, I would like to give thanks to our school and community. Most recently, thank you to those volunteers who assisted during our Variety Show dinner fundraiser: Royal Gingery, Crystal Frank, Jean and Shelby Swan, Rena and Hunter Laska, Jordan Bowden, Sam and Levi Milanowski, Cassy Kollock, Lisa Vann, Pat McDonald, Miranda Borchardt, and Dominique Miner.

Thank you also to our basketball fans, student helpers, parents and community members who provided or purchased baked goods, Colligan's Bakery, Cheese Pleasers, Guth Farms, Dan Boxx, Betty and Megan Burns, and Norm and Carol Kurkowski for your donations and assistance to our music students during this past year.

And for our music students, our family's Pastor said it best a few weeks ago, during a church service, when he led the congregation in giving thanks..."...for all singers and musicians and all who work in form or color to increase the joy of life...for poets and craftsmen, for all who rejoice in their work and make things well."

To all of our graduating seniors, I will greatly miss you, one in particular, named Levi. We are very proud of all of you and wish you the best always. And, remember, you can always come home to visit us. I would like to share with you a quote from someone whom most students know:

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. You are the guy who'll decide where to go."
– Doctor Seuss

It has been an honor and privilege this past year to represent and be a part of the Friends of Music at Almond-Bancroft. Thank you.

How does it work?

- Parents meet one night per week, three hours per night, for 16 weeks.
- Parents attend and learn, in a classroom model, to manage teen behavior problems at home.
- Parents receive and work within an activity based 216 page curriculum “A Parent’s Guide to Changing Destructive Adolescent Behavior,” available only to program participants.

LMC Awards 2009-2010

At the High School Awards Ceremony on May 7, Jeff Rykal presented the Schleizer Award to two deserving LMC students. These awards are given annually in the memory of Paul and Matt Schleizer, two brothers who were responsible and hardworking members of the Library Club and Sound Team. The awards have been given out to deserving library students since 1999. This year's honorees received certificates of appreciation and also had their names placed on special plaques located in the LMC.

The Paul Schleizer Sound Team Award went to Jacob Clark. Although he is only a junior, this is the second consecutive year that this award has gone to Jacob. He is always willing to go the extra mile to help teachers and other students - even if it means volunteering to work in his free time. Jacob has been a great asset to the LMC- working on AV and computer equipment, picking up books from the elementary classrooms, shelving books - whatever library task there is to be done, Jacob will tackle it.

The Matt Schleizer LMC Award went to Brianna Cummings. This young lady always has a smile on her face; Brianna has an incredibly positive attitude. She has been a kind, conscientious, mature, and responsible LMC Science student who has checked out books to elementary students, laminated posters, and worked on a variety of projects. As a graduating senior, her reliable and excellent service to the LMC will be missed. Congratulations to both Brianna and Jacob!

Additional students were also honored for their outstanding service to the School LMC. These exemplary Library Science students were: Danielle Folan, Elizabeth Galindo, Audrey Sanders, Dylan Schafer, Brandon Lehman, Heather Merila, Patricia Ramirez, Kiara Turzinski, Marissa Warzynski, and John Waggoner. Thank you all for your assistance in helping students and staff in the school LMC this year!

Thanks Everyone!

As another school year comes to an end, I'd like to thank all the generous people of our district who have donated books, magazines, videos, DVDs, and old calendars to the LMC. The school is very appreciative of your support. This past month, the following donations were received from these thoughtful individuals and families: the Lynn Hintz family (a wonderful assortment of elementary books, magazines, and books for the 4K students), Lisa Vann (Spanish and bilingual books), Mickey Van Ert (assorted magazines and calendars), Pat Leary (Almond-Bancroft School Yearbooks, from years past), Jeff Hunt (Farm & Ranch magazines), Cathy Guth (a set of delightful and popular Tractor Mac books for children), Leslie Burns (Parenting and Good Housekeeping magazines), Dorothy Helmrick (Birds & Blooms and the Wisconsin Historical Society Newsletter), Cathy Kunst (hardcover children's books including titles on Native Americans), and others who wish to remain anonymous.

Thank you all! And best wishes to everyone for a wonderful summer!

Extreme Makeover: Courtyard Edition

“It’s like an extreme makeover!” was how a 4th grade student described the courtyard on his first visit to the new garden space. The elementary courtyard has been transformed over the past 6 weeks. Many people offered support and help with clean-up, layout and planting to make this neglected place an inviting outdoor classroom for students, teachers and the community. Pathways, seating areas, garden beds, a pond, a birdhouse and nesting robins have already provided many learning (and teaching) opportunities for students. The gardens include plants (saved and replanted by teachers) that have been growing for years along with too many weeds for them to thrive or be seen.

When the first phase of the plan is complete, in addition to the perennial gardens, there will be a garden for students to plant and harvest, enough seating for class use, a picnic table and rain barrels to water the plants and the pond. This natural sanctuary will be a valuable place to study and enjoy nature through science, art, math, language arts and conservation.

Thanks to all who have contributed their time and ideas, with special thanks to the following groups and individuals for helping to make this project a success:

Mr. Boxx and the School Board for their generous support; Doug Rehwinkel who donated a portion of his time landscaping; Orrin and Nicole Ambrose for planning and creating the pond; PIE for the pond’s solar pump; the Anderson Family for the birdhouse and feeder they built and donated; Peg Doede for many hours of shared physical labor and moral support; Tom Collins for helping ignite the spark to begin; and Target Stores and Home Depot for cash donations.

Cinco de Mayo Celebration Brightened the Day for Almond-Bancroft Students

Lisa Vann, Spanish Teacher and English Language Learners Coordinator of Almond-Bancroft Schools wanted to create a service-learning project that her high school Spanish students would remember for the rest of their lives. On May 5th, 2010 her classes spent the afternoon with second graders, during multicultural activities that included Huichole Yarn Art, Tacos and Tales of Multicultural Diversity, and multi-colored water balloon tosses, ending the day in a Latin dance that involved almost 100 participants. Second grade teachers Sarah Blokhuis, Amanda Negro, and Missy Henske were thrilled to allow high school students to lead their classes in this unique blend of bonding that breaks barriers and promotes cultural appreciation. Mrs. Vann is very proud of her students' dedication and efforts to make the day a success.

High School students participating in the event reflected on the successes of the day with pride. Amber Hintz stated, "I liked it when all of the kids got in a big group and they were all dancing like crazy. They looked so carefree, happy, and innocent I couldn't help but smile and laugh. I know I did well because all of the kids I met have said hi to me and hugged me since then. I don't think I could have done a better job." Rylee Anderson said, "The kids were so excited that we were there. They look up to us. I think we should do more with them. It's very fun!"

Danielle Folan said, "I learned to make yarn art and dance. The second graders could dance well." Deziree Warzynski said, "Teaching the kids and watching all of them was a great time!" Danielle Dykes said, "I could tell that we had a big impact on the kids. I remember everything they said and thought they were cool. I'm happy we got to do this awesome experience. I hope we get to do it again sometime soon." Danielle Dahms said, "I hope the little kids had as much fun as me!"

Future teachers included Stephanie Rodriguez who said, "What I learned from the day was working together to solve racial problems. Many people take certain races for granted these days. Not many people look into other races. All they see is you're different. I wish there were more people that were understanding. They need to realize that different is good. The kids don't see the colors of skin; they see personalities. Maybe for once we should listen and learn from kids." Melanie Vallery added, "One of the main reasons I did like to work with the younger children is because I want to be in your position one day. Getting the experience to work with a group of new younger kids was very rewarding. It was nice to see such enthusiasm and fun the students had for the activities."

Brandon Lehman learned new skills for working with younger students. "You have to be patient. They need help sometimes and this is what you build off friendships with....help. You need to introduce yourself and ask questions." Jeanette Colombe said, "I am an expert at making yarn flower petals! Helping the second graders was a lot more fun than sitting in class. I think we should do that much more often. I love working with the little kids. They have so much imagination!" Mandi Crahan says, "I think this should be a yearly event for the elementary kids and the Spanish students." Dominique Miner was touched by the courage and compassion of a second grader who shaved her head because her grandma has cancer. "I had fun helping her. I learned more about the students."

Sorcia Rock's reflection of this celebratory day sums it up. "For Cinco de mayo Spanish classes were released to spend their day enjoying the company of second graders with food, water balloons, and beautiful yarn art. As we did this you could see the different personality each child as they placed brightly colored bits of string across pieces of paper forming the shapes of hearts and suns and mothers day cards. Tacos were a different story. Instead of brightly colored bits of yarn it was the colors of cheese and lettuce and taco meat scattered across white plates with little fingers picking at the food as if it was an unknown food. By story hour the food was forgotten to enjoy the bright colors of rainbows splashed across the book covers. Watching them pick up on the fact that the world wouldn't be the same if all the colors didn't exist was like watching sophomores in geometry. Once the story started the attention was directed to Patricia Ramirez and every bilingual word she spoke. Speaking occurred outside too as chalk drawings brightened the sidewalks for the rest of the close community to enjoy. Then the water balloons came out and it went from gentle waves to the shrill and shrieks as water splashed across the big kids and across their cute little toes. This is what I saw during Cinco de Mayo as I took the 200 pictures to document this AMAZING day." Have a look at the pictures and see for yourself! Indeed it was .....AMAZING.

Skulls, Pelts, and Poops...Oh My!

On March 31, Keith Bollinger, from the UWSP Wildlife Society, presented to the Almond elementary students on the subject of wildlife skulls, pelts, poops, and crane migration. Students took part in an activity where they became Wisconsin's crane population and learned about different aspects of crane life.

After several questions from the students, Bollinger read a short passage from The Last River Rat, written by Kenny Salwey. The message Bollinger wanted to send with the kids was the fact that they are the future of the natural world and they need to care for it with understanding, care and appreciation. As the students left, one of them said, "I wish we could learn more things like this in school."

To learn more about crane migration and general wildlife, please contact Keith Bollinger by email at Keith.A.Bollinger@uwsp.edu. You can also find out more about UWSP's Wildlife Society by checking out www.uwsp.edu/stuorg/wildlife.

It was Pawsitively educational and fun

On Friday, April 16, Renea Dahms, from Pawsitively Unleashed, presented to the Almond elementary students and community about bite prevention and canine behavior. Mrs. Dahms explained the different mannerisms of dogs and how the students should act if they are faced with an unstable canine.

The elementary students played games, looked at pictures of dogs in different moods and they were also able to work with a live dog on simple tricks.

Mrs. Dahms is a licensed bite prevention specialist and is happy to attend local events, attend home visits and loves to have people attend her training sessions in Custer, Wisconsin. If you would like to find out more about dog training classes or to learn more about the different mannerisms of canines, you may visit Renea Dahms' website at www.pawsitivelyunleashed.com. She can also be reached at 715-347-3294.

AHC ends on a positive note

The After Hours Center would like to thank parents, teachers, school staff, and community members for the support given throughout the school year. AHC had its last day of tutoring on May 25 and a celebration of their hard work the following day. Students celebrated a positive year by playing Nintendo Wii, dodgeball, and networking with the Boys & Girls Club.

On a proactive note, we would like you to think about the AHC program next year. Students will need tutoring in the core subject areas and the mentoring aspect of this program is pivotal to provide students a sense of belonging, usefulness, importance and competence. We look forward to seeing you next year.

Junior Achievement in AB middle school

For the month of March, Mr. Kujawa's seventh-grade students took part in a program called Junior Achievement in order to connect civics with today's entrepreneurial skills. Each student learned the four characteristics of being an entrepreneur, and when these skill-sets were understood the students put their own entrepreneurial traits to work.

Two groups of seventh-grade entrepreneurs came up with a business plan for the A-B communities to think about creating a teen center for them and other young people to attend after school. The presentations were so impressive that Mr. Collins invited the two groups to take their business plans and present them to the school board on Wednesday, May 19th.

Nicholas Figueroa and Anthony Hintz, two seventh-grade students, were very instrumental in the teen center process. Nicholas said, "As a group we know teens need a place to go after school. This place needs to be safe, organized and fun." If you are interested in the Junior Achievement program, check out their web site at:

Middle School Dance—AB Luau

The middle school held their second dance of the school year on May 14 with a theme of Hawaiian Luau. Most dressed up in board shorts, Hawaiian shirts and sunglasses. However, many of the students went so far as to come out in grass skirts, flowers for their hair, sandals and straw hats with the ocean in mind.

Kip Gutke was the DJ for the night, and because of the wide variety of music he played the students danced the night away.

One student, Christian Bloede, walked up to the teaching staff and chaperones and said, "Thank you for the best night of my life."

Hailey Wierzba, Student Senate President, said she enjoys the dances so much that she would like to see the middle school hold a dance every month. "Now that we know how to plan a dance, we could do this all of the time and everyone would love it," Wierzba mentioned.

The "Hawaiian Luau" dance was planned, promoted, and paid for by the Middle School Student Senate. Without this wonderful group of students none of this would have happened this year. Now that the school year is almost over it will soon be time to elect new offices to arrange events, community service offerings and fundraisers for the next school year. If you have any ideas for the MS Student Senate to work on, please call Ryan Peterson (At-Risk teacher) at 715-366-2941.

Many Thanks.....

Gus and I would like to thank Tyler Rodriquez, Cory Richtmyre, Dylan Warzynski, Sam Spohn and Mr. Wagner. The benches that you young men built for us in honor of Callyn, my son and Gus's brother, are truly beautiful. Your parents should be proud that they have raised some amazing children. I am very proud to have these kind compassionate children in my life, as I am of all of the children in our District. Mr. Wagner, thank you so much for guiding and helping them. You have done a very good job of teaching them as you also did with my boys.

The road that I have walked this last year has been a very long journey and I am very thankful that I have had your children to walk with me, from the 4K all the way up to you parents. Be proud of your children, you have done a fine job of teaching them manners and respect.

To all of you children, as you leave for the summer or to start your adult life on your own, please, please, remember why these benches were built for Gus and I. You are not invincible. My son made some bad choices, choices that have caused us, his family and friends, major pain and sadness. All of you have seen my sadness and pain. My son was not a bad person he just made some bad choices. He was human, as we all are, and we all make bad choices at times. Please consider your choices, if you find yourself in a position that you should not be driving or even riding always remember there is someone out there that will be more than willing to get you home safe. So when your parents ask or tell you not to do something they are not asking this of you to be mean, they love you and do not ever want to feel the pain of a parents worst nightmare. So please enjoy your summer and your life, just be safe. I truly appreciate what you have done for me.

The cook lady,
Connie Kaehn

We, True Harmony, want to thank everyone for coming to Austin's benefit and being so generous. With everyone's help it was a huge success. So far we are at over $7,000.00. Well on our way for Austin to receive his service dog, from 4 paws for ability. A big thank you for letting us use the school too. Everything was much appreciated. Like we said it takes a village and with all the help with all the surrounding communities we couldn't be more thrilled.

Thank you from True Harmony.

I would like to express our family's appreciation for those that attended the concert, donated, and volunteered to support 4 Paws for Ability in honor of Austin Warzynski. Thank you Rochelle and Gary, Tom and Trish, and Deb and Charlie of True Harmony. Thank you Shelly McIntee and Nancy Mykisen of Mosquito Bluff. The music was excellent and everyone seemed to really enjoy themselves. We are a little over half way to our fundraising goal and getting very excited. Thank you for the use of the school's cafeteria and auditorium. Austin's dog will be ready 6 to 9 months after we reach our goal. Austin lives in a very supportive community. Thank you all very much.

The Alvin & Michele Warzynski Family

Thank you to Richard & Heather Burns
for the donation of potatoes to the lunch program.
The students greatly enjoyed the baked potato bar!
